Dear Cesare Adeniyi-Martins

We are very pleased to offer you a scholarship to study at The University of Nottingham. Congratulations on this award! We receive a large number of outstanding applications for scholarships so this is an achievement of which you should be very proud.

Scholarship Name: Developing Solutions Masters ScholarshipScholarship Amount: 100% towards tuition fees for one year of a Masters programme (2023 entry)Programme of Study: MSc Development EconomicsEligibility:

In order to be eligible for this scholarship you must accept your offer to study at the University and meet any conditions attached to it. You must also register as a full time student, classified as 'Overseas' for fees purposes for all international scholarships. Full terms and conditions can be viewed at Scholarship Terms and Conditions, and it's important that you read and understand these. You must inform us of any other scholarships/sponsorship currently held, or awarded to you at a later date. Our scholarship may be adjusted or withdrawn if other sources of funding have been awarded.

Accepting or Declining the Scholarship, please follow the steps below:

Please respond directly to this email by Tuesday 18 July 2023 confirming if you wish to accept or decline this scholarship.

Confirmation of Acceptance for Studies (CAS) for Visa Purposes:

If you need to apply for a Student Visa you will require a CAS. A CAS is an electronic document issued to you by the University. Each CAS has a unique CAS Reference Number. Your CAS will be sent to you before the start of your course providing you have:

- Firmly accepted your unconditional offer, and
- Paid any required deposit (only applicable if you are a Masters student on a partial scholarship).

Once your tuition fee scholarship has been awarded in Financial Aid on Nottingham Hub, your tuition fee scholarship should be reflected on the CAS you are issued, or, if you received your scholarship after you have received your CAS, the CAS will be updated. You will receive a system generated notification once any financial update to your CAS has been applied.

If you are relying on the scholarship information to meet the financial requirements of the Student Visa process then please do not submit your Student Visa application online until you have received confirmation that the full scholarship has been added to your CAS. If you apply for your visa before you have this confirmation, you may receive a visa refusal.

If you have already submitted your visa application because you have enough funds to cover the required tuition fee and living costs then you do not need to do anything else. The tuition fee reduction will be applied to your account and any overpayments will be usually be refunded once you have registered.

More information about obtaining a CAS can be found on our website. Further information on the student visa application process can be found in more detail on our website.
